- 7.4 At the end of each reporting period, the Committee must disclose to the Board the number of times that it met during the period and the individual attendances of its members at those meetings.

8 BOARD AND COMMITTEE PERFORMANCE

The Committee, in conjunction with the Board, is required to:

- (a) develop and implement a process for periodically evaluating the skills, performance, and effectiveness of the CEO and other senior executives, the Board, its committees and its individual members; and
- (b) ensure that continuing professional development opportunities are available for Directors and committee members to develop and maintain the appropriate skills and knowledge required to perform their roles effectively.

9 REMUNERATION STRUCTURE

9.1 Distinction between Non-Executive and Executive Remuneration

The Committee will ensure that a clear distinction is maintained between the structure of non-executive Directors' remuneration on one hand and that of executive Directors and other senior executives on the other.

9.2 Remuneration of executive Directors and other senior executives

- (a) The Committee will make recommendations to the Board regarding the remuneration of executive Directors and other senior executives (Executive Remuneration).
- (b) Executive Remuneration packages should include an appropriate balance between fixed remuneration that is comparable with current market rates and performance-based remuneration, linked to clearly specified performance targets that align with the Company's short- and long-term objectives, purpose, values and risk appetite, and which are appropriate to the Company's circumstances and goals.

9.3 Remuneration of non-executive Directors

- (a) The Committee will make recommendations to the Board regarding the remuneration of non-executive Directors.
- (b) Non-executive Directors should be remunerated in accordance with current market rates for comparable companies and at a level that enables the Company to attract and retain non-executive Directors of the highest calibre, whilst incurring a cost which is acceptable to shareholders.
- (c) Non-executive Directors should not receive performance-based remuneration.

10 EQUITY BASED REMUNERATION

10.1 If any equity-based remuneration plans are adopted, the Committee will be responsible for reviewing their terms and overseeing their administration, including:

- (a) considering whether shareholder approval is required;
- (b) ensuring that payments and awards of equity are made in accordance with their terms and any shareholder approval; and

(c) ensuring compliance with applicable laws that restrict participants from hedging the economic risk of their security holdings.

11 REVIEW OF THIS CHARTER

11.1 The Committee will review this Charter at least annually to ensure that it accords with best practise and remains consistent with the Committee's authority, objectives, and responsibilities.

11.2 This Charter may be amended from time to time by resolution of the Board.
